

M.S. in Curriculum and Instruction with an Emphasis in Multicultural Education (ME)
PK-12 Education, Higher Education, or Community-Based Education Focus Track

---

Course Requirements
Total Course Credits Required: 39

Research Required Course – Credits: 3

EPY 702: Research Methods

Research Elective Courses – Credits: 3

Complete one of the following courses:

EPY 718: Qualitative Research Methodologies [Required for Ph.D./Ed.D.]

EPY 721: Differential and Inferential Statistics [Required for Ph.D./Ed.D.]

CME 770: Critical Inquiry and Praxis (Indigenous Methodologies)

CIG 690: Teachers as Action Researchers

EPY 719: Advanced Qualitative Research

EPY 720: Research Design in Education

EPY 729: Qualitative Case Study Research

EPY 730: Advanced Research Methods

EPY 738: Interpretive Analysis of Text and Discourse

EDW 768: Grant Procurement in Education

SOC 608: Qualitative Research

SOC 705: Qualitative Methods

JMS 711: Qualitative Research Methods

EOH 715: Qualitative & Field Methods for Public Health

NURS 781: Qualitative Research Methods in Nursing

Foundations Course – Credits: 3

Complete one of the following courses:

CIG 603: Urban Education

EPY 707: Adolescent Development

EPY 711: Human Growth and Development

EPY 712: Foundations of Learning and Cognition

Curriculum and Instruction Course – Credits: 3

Complete one of the following courses:

CIG 602: Differentiated Curriculum and Instruction

CIE 681: Elementary School Instruction

CIE 683: Elementary Classroom Management

CIE 685: Elementary Education Curriculum

CIS 682: Secondary School Instruction

CIS 684: Secondary Education Curriculum

Multicultural Education Required Course – Credits: 3

CME 705: Multicultural Education satisfies [Regulation 130-18 and NRS 391.0347 requirements]

Multicultural Education Elective Courses – Credits: 6

Complete two of the following courses:

CME 710: Cultural Studies in Education [Required for Ph.D.]

CME 720 Comparative Studies in Education [Required for Ph.D.]

CME 745: Theory and Research Multicultural Education [Required for Ph.D.]

CME 765: Analysis of the School-to-Prison Pipeline

CIG 773: Critical Literacies/Critical Pedagogies

CIL 693: Literacy for a Diverse Society

CIL 684: Multicultural Literature

Choose One of the Following Subplan Options:

Multicultural Education Subplan—Option #1

Multicultural Education Subplan Elective Course – Credits: 6

Complete two of the following courses:

CME 700: Social Justice Education

CME 735: Multicultural Curriculum Transformation satisfies [Regulation 130-18 and NRS 391.0347 requirements]

CME 740: Intergroup Dialogue Facilitation

CME 750: Critical Multicultural Education satisfies [Regulation 130-18 and NRS 391.0347 requirements]

CME 755: Teaching about Latina/Latino Experiences in Education

CME 775: Multicultural Organizational Development

Students interested in concurrently completing the Multicultural Education Certificate need to take CME 735, 745, and 785.

Students interested in also completing the Social Justice Studies Certificate need to take CME 700.

Teaching English as a Second Language Subplan—Option #2

TESL Subplan Required Course – Credits: 3

TESL 751: Theory and Practice for Academic English Language Development

TESL Subplan Elective Courses – Credits: 3

Complete one of the following courses:

TESL 750: TESL Linguistic Theory

TESL 752: Methods and Curriculum for Teaching ELs

TESL 753: TESL Curriculum

TESL 754: Assessment and Evaluation of ELs

Students interested in concurrently completing the TESL endorsement need to take TESL 751, 752, 753, and 754

Cognate Courses – Credits: 6

Complete 6 credits of advisor-approved cognate coursework. Courses can be chosen from any department on campus, but must be 600-level or above, and must be related in some way (e.g., be in the same department, be on a related theme, focus on the topic from different disciplinary points of entry, etc.). Courses chosen can include, but do not have to include, any CME course not already completed.

Thesis – Credits: 6

CIG 699: Curriculum and Instruction Thesis

(Students may not enroll in thesis credits until they have passed their thesis proposal defense and secured IRB approval or exemption for their thesis study. Students must enroll in thesis credits over a minimum of two semesters. Students must be enrolled in at least 3 thesis credits the semester they graduate.)